Statement

Hi, I'm Adam Harris, one of the Co-Convenors of Lothian Young Greens. I've been a member of the party for a year and a half now and have been fairly active since then and was particularly involved in this year's council election campaign.

I'm running for Treasurer because I would like to explore ways to further strengthen the financial security of the branch after two years of elections. If elected to any role, I would do my best to support the branch and its members over the coming year.

Outside of my work with the party, I am a maths student at the University of Edinburgh, where I have just finished my 3rd year.
